ONTARIO REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION BYLAWS

Article 1 - TITLE

This organization has been incorporated under the laws of the Province of Ontario (March, 1992) and is known as the Ontario Reining Horse Association (ORHA) and shall at all times be operated as a non-profit organization in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and Dominion of Canada.

Article 2 - OBJECTIVES

- To promote and encourage the showing of reining horses in the Province of Ontario;
- To develop and enforce suitable and proper standards of performance and judging;
- To educate the members and spectators in the training and exhibition of reining horses;

Article 3 - OPERATION

The business of the organization will be conducted in the Province of Ontario and it will at all times be operated as an affiliate of the National Reining Horse Association and/or Reining Canada EXCEPT where there is a conflict between the ORHA Rules and by-laws and the NRHA/RC Rules and by-laws, the ORHA Rules and by-laws shall prevail.

Article 4 - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 – Availability

Membership is open to any individual of good character and reputation that has an interest in reining horses and the promotion of the reining horse.

Section 2 – Admission

Members shall be admitted and retained in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Ontario Reining Horse Association.

Section 3 – Dues

Each member of the Association shall pay annual membership dues to the ORHA. Said dues are due and payable at the commencement of each fiscal year. The fiscal year of this Association shall be January 1 through December 31 of each year. A youth membership is also available. All membership dues and charges for the Association's publications shall be set by the Board of Directors.

Section 4 - Life Membership

Life Memberships in the Ontario Reining Horse Association are considered an individual membership and may be also available. Dues for a life membership shall be set by the Board of Directors.

Article 5 - MEETINGS

Section 1 - Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Association shall be held at a time and place designated by the Board of Directors. Notice of the membership meetings will be printed in the Association's official publication or directly presented to the members by Canada Post mail or electronic mail.

Section 2 - Special Meetings

Special meetings of the membership may be called by the Board of Directors to be held at a time and place designated by the Board of Directors. Notice for special meetings will be given in the official publication of the Association or through special mailing, regular or electronic, to each member at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting. Business transacted at all special meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call and notice of the meeting and meetings germane thereto.

Section 3 – Quorum

At any meeting of the Association, whether it be an annual meeting or a special meeting, the members present shall constitute a quorum regardless of the number actually present.

Article 6 - OFFICERS

Section 1 - Officers and Executive Committee

The officers of ORHA shall be a President, First Vice President, Second Vice-President Secretary and Treasurer. The Board of Directors shall appoint the Secretary and Treasurer. There shall be an Executive Committee comprised of the above-mentioned officers and such other(s) as the Directors may appoint.

Section 2 - Salaries

The salaries, if any, of the officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the membership at a duly called membership meeting.

Article 7 - ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

Section 1 - Term of Office

The election of officers and directors shall be held at the annual meeting of the association at the time and place designated by the Board of Directors. So as to have continuity in the officers of the Association:

- The First Vice-President and two (2) members shall be elected for a two (2) year term
- The President, Second Vice President and two (2) members shall be elected for a (2) year term, and
- Thereafter the election shall be for those positions that have served their full term and persons.

Section 2 - Nominations

Nominations of candidates for the offices open for election shall be submitted by the committee appointed by the President, and submitted to the President, no less than thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting.

Section 3 - Nomination by Membership

At the written request of five (5) members of the Association, a candidate other than those submitted by the above-mentioned committee may be placed into nomination and it shall be immediately given to the membership, provided said written request for nomination is placed in the hands of the ORHA office not less than forty-five (45) days before the annual election.

Section 4 - Voting

Each Full Member and or Friends Member of the Association, in good standing at the time of the election, who is entitled to vote, must be present at the annual meeting in order to vote. There will be no proxy voting accepted by ORHA.

Section 5 - Elections Auditor

The election of the officers and directors at the annual meeting shall be conducted by persons duly appointed at the annual meeting for that purpose.

Section 6 - Voting Tie

In the event of a tie, the President will vote to break the tie. If the tie is for the position of President, then the Past President shall break the tie.

Article 8 - DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1 - President

The President shall:

- Be the Chief Executive Officer of the Association;
- Preside at the meetings of the Executive Committee, the Board of Directors and meetings of the Members;
- Ensure that all orders of the Directors and of these by-laws are implemented. Perform all other duties as are normally incidental to the office of President;
- Sign all cheques, notes, bills of exchange, deeds or other formal documents.

Section 2 - First Vice President

The First Vice-President shall:

- Be vested with all the powers and shall perform all the duties of the President in the absence or disability or refusal to act of the President;
- Have such powers and duties, if any, as may from time to time be assigned to him/her by the Board.

Section 3 - Second Vice President

The Second Vice-President shall:

- Be vested with all the powers and shall perform all the duties of the President or First Vice-President in the absence or disability or refusal to act of the President and the First Vice President;
- Have such powers and duties, if any, as may from time to time be assigned by the Board.

Section 4 - Secretary

The Secretary shall:

- Have charge of the corporate seal and the minute book of the Association and shall record in such book minutes of all meetings of the Directors and members, and of such other proceedings as the Board may direct;
- Unless some other Officer is specifically charged with the duty, the Secretary shall keep or cause to be kept such books and records as the Association is required to keep under the provisions of the Laws of the Province of Ontario, and shall sign with the President or other signing Officer of the Association such instruments as require their signature.

Section 5 - Treasurer

The Treasurer shall:

- Have the care and custody of all the funds and securities of the Association, and shall deposit the same in the name of the Association in such bank or banks, depository or depositories as the Board of Directors may direct;
- Unless some other Officers are specifically charged with the duty, keep or cause to be kept the books of account, which the Association is required to keep under the provisions of the Province of Ontario.

Section 6 - Officers

The Officers shall be charged with the daily operational responsibilities of the Association, including, but not limited to, decisions necessary for continuity and those requiring immediate attention. Any action taken by the Officers without the prior approval of the Board of Directors, or action permitted by these by-laws, requires a quorum of the Officers. For the purposes of these By-Laws, a quorum shall consist of four (4) officers. The Officers of the Association shall not, without prior Board of Directors approval, bind the Association to any long-term contractual obligations. For the purposes of these by-laws, long term contractual obligations is defined as any contractual agreement which requires expenditures of funds on behalf of the Association and shall be in effect for a period in excess of two (2) years. Further, the Officers shall not have the authority to bind the Association to any agreement, debt, obligation, or expenditure in excess of two thousand ($2,000.00) Dollars, without the prior approval of the Board of Directors.

Section 7 - Removal

Any Officer or Director elected by the Membership, may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever, in its judgment, the best interests of ORHA would be served thereby.

Section 8 - Vacancies

If the office of any officer, or agent, one or more, becomes vacant for any reason, the Board of Directors may choose a successor or successors, who shall hold office for the unexpired time in respect of which such vacancy occurs. Vacancies in the Board of Directors, including vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of Directors, shall be filled by a majority of the remaining members of the Board no less than a quorum, and each person so elected shall be a Director until the successor is elected by the membership, who may make such election at the next annual meeting of the membership, or at any special meeting duly called for that purpose and held prior thereto.

Article 9 - DIRECTORS

Section 1 - Appointed

The business of the Association shall be managed by its Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall be comprised of the President, First Vice-President, Second Vice- President, four (4) elected Directors, and up to a maximum of four (4) Directors appointed by the Officers, or as many as deemed necessary by the elected Board of Directors . The appointed Directors shall hold office for a period of one (1) year. All other Directors shall hold the position of Director as long as their term of office. In the event the ORHA has retained an Executive Director as set forth hereinafter in these by-laws, the said Executive Director shall not be a member of the Board of Directors. All members of the Board of Directors must be members of ORHA.

Section 2 - Reporting Requirements

The Board of Directors shall have general charge of the affairs, finances and property of the Association, to which they shall make an annual report to the membership at the annual meeting.

Section 3 - Authority

In addition to the powers and authorities these by-laws expressly confer upon them, the Board of Directors may exercise all such powers of the Association and to all such lawful acts that are not prohibited by statute or by these by-laws.

Section 4 - Vacancies

The Board of Directors shall be empowered to fill vacancies occurring in the Board. Any vacancy occurring in the Board may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall serve the unexpired term of his/her predecessor.

Section 5 - Quorum

A quorum of the Directors in office shall be necessary to transact business of the Association. A quorum for the purpose of these By-Laws is defined as five (5) members of the Board of Directors. Once it is established that a quorum exists, a majority of such quorum shall then decide upon any questions that may come before the meeting and shall be binding as though the full Board of Directors were sitting.

Section 6 - Absenteeism

Any Director that misses more than two (2) unexcused meetings per year may be removed for cause.

Section 7 - Expenses

By resolution of the Board of Directors, the Directors may be paid their expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors and may be paid a fixed sum for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors or a stated salary as a Director. No such payment shall preclude any Director from serving the Association in any capacity and receiving compensation in addition to his fee as a Director.

Section 8 - "Good Faith"

A Director of the Association shall stand in a fiduciary relation to the Association and shall perform his or her duties as a Director, including his or her duties as a member of any committee of the Board upon which he or she may serve, in good faith, in a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in the best interest of the Association, and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, skill and diligence, as a person of ordinary prudence would use under similar circumstances. In performing his or her duties, a Director shall be entitled to rely on good faith information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared by any of the following:

- I. One or more officers or employees of the Association whom the Director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

- II. Counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters which the Director reasonably believes to be within a professional and expert competence of such person;

- III. A Committee of the Board upon which he or she does not serve, duly designated in accordance with law as to matters within its designated authority, which a director reasonably believes to merit confidence.

A Director shall not be considered to be acting in good faith if he or she has knowledge concerning the matter in question that would cause his/her reliance to be unwarranted. In discharging the duties of their respective positions, the Directors shall at all times use the skill and diligence a person of ordinary prudence would use in similar circumstances. So long as the Director uses such skill and diligence as a person of ordinary prudence would use under similar circumstances, he or she shall not be held personally responsible for any actions taken on behalf of the Association.

Article 10 - MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 1 - Signing Authorities

All cheques or demands for money and notes of the Association shall be signed by such officer or officers or their designees as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 2 - Written Notice

Whenever written notice is required to be given to any person, it may be given to such persons either personally or by sending a copy thereof through the mail, or by telefax, charges prepaid to his or her address appearing on the books of the Association membership list, or supplied by him to the Association for the purpose of notice. If a notice is sent by mail, it shall be deemed to have been given to the person entitled thereto when it is deposited in Canada Post mail. If the notice is sent by way of telefax or electronic mail, it shall be deemed to have been given to the person entitled thereto when transmission occurs. Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting and/or hearing and in the case of a special meeting of the membership, the general nature of the business to be transacted.

Section 3 - Waiver of Notice

Whenever any written notice is required by statute, or by the by-laws of the Association, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Except in the case of a special meeting of the membership, either the business to be transacted or the purpose of the meeting needs to be specified in the waiver of notice of such meeting. Attendance of a person at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to a transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4 - Teleconferencing

One or more of the Directors may participate in a meeting of the Board by means of conference telephone or other electronic device equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can communicate with and hear each other.

Section 5 - Explanation

The words Association and the acronym ORHA used in this document are synonymous and are used to refer to the Ontario Reining Horse Association.

Article 11 - ANNUAL STATEMENTS

The President and Board of Directors shall present at each annual meeting a full and complete statement of the business and affairs of the Association for the preceding year. Such statements shall be prepared and presented in whatever manner the Board of Directors shall deem advisable and need not be verified by a Certified Public Accountant.

Article 12 - INDEMNIFICATION

The Association shall indemnify each of its Directors, Officers, employees and committee members, whether or not then in service as such, against all reasonable expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him or her in connection with the defence of any litigation to which the individual may have been a party because he or she was a Director, Officer or employee of the Association. The individual shall have no right to reimbursement, however, in relation to matters as to which he or she has been adjudged liable to the Association for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duties, or was derelict in the performance of his or her duty as a Director, Officer or employee by reason of wilful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence, or reckless disregard of the duties of his or her office or employment. The right to indemnify for expenses shall also apply to expenses of suits which are comprised or settled, if the Court having jurisdiction of this matter shall approve such settlement.

The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to, and not exclusive of, all other rights which such Director, Officer or Employee may be entitled by insurance.

Article 13 - AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the by-laws must be presented to the ORHA office at least sixty (60) days prior to the annual meeting, and written notice of the proposed amendments will be given in the ORHA official publication or by a special mailing to the membership at least thirty (30) days before the annual meeting. These amendments will be considered and voted on at the annual meeting, and must be passed by the majority of the members voting in person.

Article 14 - DISSOLUTION OF THE ASSOCIATION

In the event of the dissolution of the Association for any cause whatsoever, the property and assets of the Association after all liabilities have been met shall not, in any event, be distributed among the members, but shall be disposed of by donating to another organization having similar non-partisan, non-profit objectives.

ONTARIO REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION
GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

A - DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

Section 1. Membership in the Association carries responsibilities as well as certain rights. Any member of the Association may be disciplined, fined or suspended upon a showing of good cause. Any non-member may be denied membership, and the privileges relating thereto, whenever it shall be established by satisfactory evidence to the ORHA Executive Board that such non-member is not a worthy candidate.

Section 2. Anyone who becomes a member of the Association accepts to be bound by all the rules and regulations of the Association and renounces any recourse that he or she may have against the Association in connection with the enforcement of those rules.

Section 3. Whenever anyone believes that conduct at an ORHA-approved event of a member or non-member warrants disciplinary actions, he or she must file within ten (10) days of the actual incident, and/or within ten (10) days of having gained knowledge of the incident, a protest in writing with the ORHA Office. Timely filing will be determined by the postmark on the envelope. Any protest must be accompanied by a bank draft, money order, certified cheque, or cash in the amount of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars to be considered validly filed. The filings of a negative show representative's report and/or judges' grievance setting out the conduct warranting disciplinary action will also constitute a validly filed protest. The $100.00 protest fee will be assessed only against the first entity named in each protest. All protest fees are non-refundable in every instance of an Unfounded protest, or in a case of Finding, a portion of the protest fees may be return to the Protester, but not to exceed 50%, and the amount will be determined by the Board of Directors. Upon receipt of all validly filed protests in the ORHA Office, the ORHA President and/or Executive Committee will designate the Protest Review Committee to investigate the protest and make any recommendation.

Section 4. Upon receipt by the ORHA Office of any validly filed protests, notification shall be sent to the person accused of a violation of these rules at that person's last known address. That notice shall contain a copy of the protest and shall advise the accused of the disciplinary procedure to be followed.

Section 5. Not less than yearly, the ORHA President and/or Executive Director shall appoint a Protest Review Committee. The Committee shall contain no less than three (3) persons, one of whom need not be a member of the Association. Current ORHA Officers and Executive Committee Members and Directors, are ineligible to serve on the Committee. The Protest Review Committee shall have full carriage of the investigation, including the power to assign one or more members to carry out the investigation of facts.

Section 6. Upon reviewing the investigation report, the Protest Review Committee may chose to refer the matter to the appropriate standing committee for review. If the Protest Review Committee finds the matter is not sufficiently serious to warrant a hearing, all parties will be advised accordingly. If however, the Protest Review Committee finds that a hearing is warranted, the person accused of the violation shall be given not less than thirty (30) days written notice of a time and place for a hearing before the ORHA Executive Board. The accused shall have the opportunity to appear at the hearing, with or without counsel, and to be heard and to present evidence and testimony on his or her own behalf and to hear and refute any evidence offered against him or her. Should the accused choose to appear at the hearing, the accused does so at his or her own expense. Additionally, any costs associated with counsel of the accused shall be borne by the accused, regardless of the outcome of the hearing. The parties will receive a decision from the ORHA Executive Committee immediately after deliberation. The ORHA may be represented at any such hearing by counsel, or an agent who is not a member of the Executive Committee or a member of the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Proceedings before the ORHA Executive Committee shall be informal, and rules of evidence, both at common law or provided by Ontario rules of civil or criminal evidence, need not be strictly observed. The standard by which admissibility is determined is whether the evidence is such that an ordinary prudent person is willing to rely upon it. As an ORHA member, participant at an ORHA or NRHA/RC approved event or a person appearing before the Executive Committee, the accused person agrees that all witnesses and participants in such hearing shall be immune from any civil liability whatsoever, including, but not limited to, libel, slander, invasion of privacy, defamation, or product of disparagement, for testimony given in the course of preparation for or at the hearing.

Section 8. In regard to any violation of ORHA or NRHA/RC rules and regulations, the Executive Committee may impose at a minimum the following sanctions:

- (a) First Offence -not less than 30 days probation.
- (b) Second Offence -not less than 30 days suspension.
- (c) Third Offence -not less than a one-year suspension.
- (d) Lifetime suspension -where warranted

In addition to the minimum sanctions set forth above, the ORHA Executive Committee shall have jurisdiction to invoke any or all of the following sanctions, including but not limited to, revocation or denial of membership privileges, revocation of participation privileges in all ORHA-approved events, denial of privilege or access or presence on the show grounds of an ORHA-approved event, denial of privilege to advertise in NRHA's / RC official publications and/or assessment of a fine.

Section 9. The Executive Committee and/or its designee will issue a written report including finding of fact and conclusions within a reasonable period of time after the close of the hearing. All parties will receive a copy of the findings of facts and conclusions.

Section 10. When a member is disciplined or suspended, or a non-member is denied membership privileges, the finding of fact and conclusions will be presented to the ORHA Board of Directors and the NRHA/RC Board of Directors and the name of such member or non-member will be published in the official ORHA publication, and may be published in the NRHA Publication or Reining Canada's Publication "The Reiner" / Slidin!.

Section 11. Any suspended member of the ORHA will not be allowed to participate in any ORHA-approved event as an owner of a horse, rider, or act as an agent in connection with any ORHA-approved event. In the event a suspended member enters an approved event during the period of suspension either as owner, rider or agent, the ORHA Executive Committee may impose an additional six (6) month period of suspension and all show winnings will be forfeited to the ORHA. All forfeited earnings will be redistributed as set forth in D- Forfeitures, Section 2.

Section 12. If the ORHA Executive Committee deems the submission of a protest to be malicious and/or frivolous, appropriate disciplinary action may be taken.

Section 13. Any member interfering with, or attempting to influence, the outcome of a protest investigation or hearing may be subject to disciplinary action by the ORHA.

Section 14. The decision and action of the ORHA Executive Committee shall be final and binding upon all parties.

Section 15. All disciplinary hearings shall be held at a location as determined by the ORHA Executive Committee.

B - CAUSES FOR DISCIPLINARY ACTION -ABUSE

Section 1. A member of the association shall not abuse or mistreat any horse in any manner whatsoever on the show grounds. Abuse is defined as an action, or failure to act, which a reasonably prudent person, informed and experienced in the customs, accepted training techniques and exhibition procedures, would determine to be cruel, abusive, inhumane or detrimental to the horse's health.

Section 2. Individuals will be subject to the disciplinary procedures set forth in Section A if it is determined that there was wilful abuse of the horse under any of the following circumstances:

- (a) The individual physically participates in the abuse of the animal or shows the horse in a condition to be considered abuse.

- (b) The individual designates him or herself as the exhibitor on the show entry form.

C - UNSPORTSMANLIKE CONDUCT

Section 1. Unsportsmanlike conduct will not be tolerated. Unsportsmanlike conduct shall be defined as any action of disrespect, deceit or fraud directed to judges, show management, show representatives, the ORHA, ORHA/NRHA/RC members or other exhibitors.

D - FORFEITURES

Section 1. Any rider participating in a class or a division in which he/she is not eligible based on earnings (or the horse he/she is riding is not eligible based on earnings) may be placed on probation for 30 days for the first offence. Second and subsequent offences will result in a 30-day suspension and a fine of $200. When a horse / rider is found to be ineligible, the earnings and awards will be forfeited to the ORHA.

Section 2. Upon receipt of any forfeited earnings, ORHA will redirect the forfeited earnings to the show committee to be redistributed. ORHA will make corrections to the class placing and earnings in the ORHA database. It is the responsibility of the ineligible and/or disciplined exhibitor and/or owner to forfeit all earnings, prizes and/or awards to the ORHA.

E - FAILURE TO PAY

Any member may be suspended and denied privileges of the Association, and any non-member, and any non-member approved show or official thereof, may be denied privileges of the Association for failure to pay when due, any obligation owed the Association, Reiner Magazine, ORHA Official Publication or any NRHA/RC, or ORHA approved show for failure to pay entry fees, stall fees, office charges, premiums or any other fees or charges connected with the exhibition of reining horses; provided, however, that fifteen (15) days before action, written notice of the account due and the intention to suspend and withhold privileges of the Association shall be delivered to such member or non-member. This provision also includes the payment of any costs, fees or obligations for a cheque that is returned to the ORHA or any show or affiliate that has been deemed by a bank to be paid by an account that contains non-sufficient funds. Any suspension and denial of privileges under this section shall terminate upon full payment of the obligation due.

F - COURT OF LAW CONVICTIONS

A conviction of an individual under municipal, county, state, provincial or federal law, whether or not the ORHA is involved, may subject the convicted person to discipline by the ORHA Executive Committee under the terms herein set forth. Any discipline imposed will be stayed pending completion of any statutory appeals. Acceptance of a conviction by NRHA/RC will be given after notice to the sanctioned individual or entity, which may request a hearing before the ORHA Executive Committee.

G - CONVICTIONS BY OTHER EQUINE ORGANIZATIONS

ORHA Executive Committee may accept suspension rulings pertaining to cruel or inhumane treatment of horses from other recognized equine related associations and state or provincial racing commissions. The effect of such acceptance is to suspend the individual from ORHA membership privilege, or for non-members, to deny membership privileges, for a length of time equal to the suspension for which reciprocity is given. Acceptance of such rulings by ORHA will be given after notice to the sanctioned individual or entity, who may request a hearing before the ORHA Executive Board to present lack of due process by the reporting association to merit ORHA's refusal to give reciprocity.

H - DISCIPLINE BY NRHA or Reining Canada

ORHA will honour any suspension rulings of the NRHA/RC Executive Board.

I - SHOWS

All Show Managers Must be Members of ORHA and as of 2010 must have a valid NRHA Show Managers Certification.

ORHA will not sponsor a show that does not have classes that are beneficial to all competitors with the exception of when a show is beneficial to ORHA upon vote from directorship. The organization will from time to time sanction specific show events. These events may or may not be sanctioned by the National Reining Horse Association or Reining Canada. In either event, the rules of the National Reining Horse Association and/or Reining Canada will govern, except where an event not sanctioned by the NRHA/RC is sanctioned by the ORHA, the requirement for membership with the NRHA will be altered to require membership in the ORHA.

Any show wishing to be sanctioned by the organization must submit an application by the deadline set. Special cases will be considered by the Board of Directors and may be approved on their merit. A show committee may retain up to 50% of entry fees.

An ORHA Founders' Club Show is to be held annually financed by the interest of the Founders' Club invested monies plus fund raising initiatives. In addition 10% of the ORHA net profits will be transferred to the Founders' Club account.

A show committee wishing to hold an ORHA sanctioned show has the right to apply for sponsorship and it will be considered by the Board.

ORHA will pay sponsorship to a show committee which holds an ORHA sanctioned show that meets the criteria as specified in the show approval application. The amount of sponsorship will be set annually by the Board of Directors, and will be dependent upon the Association's financial status.

An office fee and a sanctioning fee will be charged per horse and added to the entry forms at all sanctioned shows. The office fee only will apply for the Founders' Club show.

Whereas a Show Committee - wishes to hold ORHA classes in a separate ring as to the NRHA / RC, there will be a minimum of 1 ORHA approved judge or 1 NRHA approved judge at each ORHA sanctioned and approved jackpot or non-NRHA Show or, all non-NRHA judges must be certified by the ORHA Board of Directors

To compete in a NRHA class you must be a member of NRHA, If you wish to compete in the Affiliate Classes you must be a member of Reining Canada and NRHA.

J - NRHA AFFILIATE SHOWS

Refer to NRHA respective year's terms and conditions. Representatives must be current ORHA/RC/NRHA members.

K - REINING CANADA Specific Classes and/or SHOWS

Refer to Reining Canada respective years terms and conditions. Show representative must be a current ORHA/RC member.

L - YEAR END AWARDS

The organization will recognize achievements of its members by annually presenting an award to the highest money / point earner (Champion) and the second highest money/point earner (Reserve Champion) in each class based on the total annual monies / points earned at ORHA sanctioned events in one calendar year (January 1- to December 31st). Tabulations are calculated on horse and rider combinations only from the day the paid membership is received to the end of the award year.

In order to qualify for year-end awards, Champion and Reserve riders must have competed in the said class at least 50% of the total times offered at shows. In order for monies earned to be eligible for year-end awards, rider and horse owner must be a member in good standing of ORHA.

M - CLASSES

Classes may be added / deleted from time to time at the discretion of the Board of Directors for sanctioning / sponsorship purposes. Show organizers may select classes from those available but must meet criteria set for sanctioning / sponsorship of ORHA and/or NRHA/RC.

All riders and horse owners must be Full or Youth members of ORHA to show in ORHA sanctioned classes at ORHA/NRHA/RC approved shows and must become members to show at all ORHA sanctioned jackpot shows. NRHA criteria applies for NRHA recognized classes. Reining Canada criteria applies for RC approved classes.

ORHA Youth, Beginner Class, and Green as Grass Class will be a non-money pay back class. Ribbons will be awarded to 6th place.

Q - CLASS ELIGIBILITY

The cut-off for NRHA determining money averages are counted from the day the membership is received in the NRHA office to the end of the award year. It is the responsibility of the owner and/or rider to be aware of official RC/NRHA or ORHA earnings of the horse and/or rider as recorded by the RC/NRHA or ORHA. For any ORHA awards in any class, event or at year-end, the rider and owner must be a member of ORHA.

NRHA has adopted the following definition of immediate family: husband, wife, parent, step-parent, child, step-child, brother, sister, half brother, half sister, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, grandmother, grandfather and in-laws of the same relation as stated above. It is the responsibility of the Non Pro to file an Immediate Family Form with the NRHA prior to showing an immediate family member's horse. The Non Pro is also responsible for updating that form with any changes. If there is not an Immediate Family Form on file with the NRHA office, a Non Pro may be forfeited out of any NRHA Non Pro classes in which they have shown.

All horses in a class must be drawn for position and must run as drawn, except in the case of an event that is running multiple arenas simultaneously. In this case priority is given to one arena and that arena will maintain the draw, while the other arena will allow for flexibility in the draw to assist riders with conflicts between arenas. All entered horses must have a correct exhibitor number displayed. Failure to display correct exhibitor number will result in the rider receiving a $25 fine per offence. If a rider rides more than one horse, there should be a spread of at least 2 horses between his/her runs.
